

Councillor William Evans

I am married with two grown up daughters and five grand-children and have been a resident at Garden Village for the past 35 years.

I am a retired senior ranking police officer and personal assisstant to her majesty's coroner. I took up interest in local politics in 1998 and joined the Pontybrenin Labour Party ward and Llŵchwr Town Council before becoming chairman and mayor of these organisations.

I am currently a governor at Pontybrenin and Tre Uchaf Primary schools, a trustee of Loughor Town Trust and chairman of the Gorseinon development Trust.

I was elected in Kingsbridge in 2008 and I remain fully committed to serve and represent the views of this close-knit community to the best of my ability.
